

HELGA GARUZZO

Born in 1973.

Independent Director of Banca Sella since 2018 and Chairwoman of the Related Parties Committee since 2023.

Qualified lawyer, registered with the Milan Bar Association since 2003 and admitted to the Supreme Court since 2016.

She has been a partner at the law firm Pavesio e Associati with Negri-Clementi since 2011.

Previously, she worked in Turin at the law firms Brosio, Casati e Associati, Ferreri, Tosetto, Weigmann e Associati, and Pavia e Ansaldo. Since 2005, he has worked at the NCTM law firm in Milan (as a salary partner since 1 January 2008).

Her professional practice focuses in particular on administrative law, with reference to the following areas: public procurement, local public services, real estate, environmental law, energy law, administrative and accounting liability.

She has collaborated with the University of Eastern Piedmont in Alessandria, teaching administrative law, and has lectured in various university master's programmes.

Since 2020, she has been a member of the teaching staff of the Law School at the Turin Bar Association.

She has contributed to the publication of anthologies and commentaries.