

MASCIA BEDENDO

Born in 1972.

Independent Director of Banca Sella since 2020 and Member of the Related Parties Committee.

She is full Professor of Corporate Finance at Bologna University.

Previously, she was a Professor of Finance at Audencia Business School, Assistant Professor at Bocconi University and Postdoctoral fellow at Imperial College London. Moreover, she was visiting scholar at Collegio Carlo Alberto, Imperial College London and Cass Business School.

She holds a PhD in Finance from the University of Warwick. Her research, which focuses primarily on issues related to corporate finance, credit risk and green finance, has been published in journals such as the Journal of Financial and Quantitative Analysis, the Journal of Money, Credit and Banking, and the Journal of Corporate Finance.