

ANDREA LANCIANI

Born in 1965.

Director of Banca Sella Holding since 2025.

Admitted to the Turin Bar Association in 1992 and to the special register for representation before higher courts in 2007.

He is equity partner in the Weigman Law Firm in Turin, for whom he performs consulting and advisory activities regarding company law, specifically regarding the banking, financial and company sectors. He advises banks and listed companies and assisted high-standing clients in the financial, industrial and insurance sectors for M&A operations, also on an international basis.

He is an author of several publications regarding commercial and company law and he was a speaker in multiple events organized by different institutions. Moreover, he held several classes at the Bruno Caccia and Fulvio Croce School of Specialisation for Legal Professions at the University of Turin and Eastern Piedmont.

In the Sella group, he was, from 2015 to 2025, a Director in Banca Sella and President of the Related Parties Committee from 2020 to 2023.