

CATERINA SELLA

Born in 1963, she's married to Alberto Fossati and has two children: Tommaso (1994) and Valeria (1997).

She graduated from the Statale University of Milan with a degree in Law and is a qualified Lawyer admitted to the Supreme Court with her own law firm in Milan and Biella, Studio Legale DPS Associati, specialising in commercial, banking, bankruptcy and corporate law.

Director of Banca Sella Holding, Parent Company of the Sella group, since 2010.

Chairwoman of Sella Fiduciaria and, since July 2021, Secretary of the Board of Trustees of Maurizio Sella S.A.p.A.

Member of the Ethics Committee of the Sella Group, she was involved in the Supervisory bodies pursuant to Legislative Decree 231/01 of certain companies in the Sella group.

She's a Director of Tollegno Power S.p.A., an industrial company, Deputy Chairwoman of the Fondazione Sella, which operates in the field of historical and cultural preservation and promotion, and a member of the Associazione Italiana delle Imprese di Famiglia – AidAF, serving as Treasurer.

Moreover, she performs advisory activities, also pro-bono, in the field of issues related to the management of asset protection for disadvantaged and disabled persons, collaborating with foundations and non-profit associations.