

GIOVANNI PETRELLA

Born in 1971.

Chairman of Banca Sella Holding since 2025 (already a Director since 2012), he is also a Member of the Risk Committee.

After graduating from Bocconi University with a bachelor's degree in business administration, he obtained a master's degree in economics at Bocconi University and a PhD in Financial Markets from Catholic University in 2000.

He is a Full Professor of Banking, teaching derivatives and market microstructure in graduate classes, and the Director of the graduate program in Banking and Finance.

Full Professor of Financial Intermediary Economics and Dean of the Faculty of Banking, Finance and Insurance Sciences at the Cattolica University in Milan.

From 2012 to 2014, he was a member of the Consultative Working Group for the Secondary Market Standing Committee of the European Securities and Markets Authority (ESMA), Paris. From 2016 to 2018, he was a member of the Banking Stakeholder Group of the European Banking Authority (EBA), London. Since 2016, he has been a member of the Securities and Markets Stakeholder Group of ESMA, Paris, of which he has been Chairman since 2024.

In the Sella group, he also holds the positions of Chairman of Banca Sella and of Sella SGR.

He is Chairman of Lendlease Italy SGR, real estate fund management company.

Author of more than fifty publications on financial subjects and referee for scientific journals, since 2023 he has been a member of the national commission appointed by the Ministry of University and Research for the qualification of full and associate university professors in the disciplines of 'Economics of Financial Intermediaries' and 'Corporate Finance'.